RE: April Quarterly Report (1/1/02-3/31/02)

Dear Mr. Young:

I am writing this letter in response to your correspondence dated June 11, 2002 and the 2nd request of John Gibson, Assistant Staff Director, dated July 3, 2002.

With regard to your inquiry regarding certain apparent excessive contribution, to wit:

- Rosemarie Agusta
- Charles Callahan
- Paul Dillane
- Lillian Gavin

Please be advised that the apparent excessive contributions with regard to Charles Callahan are in fact compliant. The contributions enumerated in your correspondence refer to contributions made by two separate contributors. Charles E. Callahan who resides at 199-33 23rd Avenue, Whitestone, NY 11357 & Charles Callahan who resides at 9 Arleigh Road, Douglaston, NY 11363. For your further information, they are father and son.

With regard to the excessive contributions from Paul Dillane, Rosemarie Agusta and Lillian Gavin, said excessive contributions were refunded promptly when it was discovered that they were excessive. The refunds were made subsequent to the April Quarterly report, therefore they could only be reflected on the June 30 Mid Year. Additionally, I have enclosed copies of said refunds as you correspondence requests.
